Our Story

Chef Shell's Catering has grown locally and is widely known for fresh foods and excellent customer service. Our business was established in 1998, evolving from a specialty sauce company to one of the top local full-service caterers.

Much of our business is corporate caterings, which include catered meetings, grand opening celebrations, weddings, and many other special events. These events range from daily caterings for 5 – 10 people to special events for 100 – 800 people.

Special thank you to St. Clair County Community College Graphic Design Class for our menu design.
